

The Prophesy of the King

Isaiah 9:1, 6-7

Wonderful Counselor

- 700 years before Jesus was born the prophet Isaiah introduced the coming King.
- Whoever you listen to is your counselor.
- Jesus, the Wonderful Counselor, has the ability to help us deal with the root cause of all our problems.
- The only way we can deal effectively with sin is to realize that only the Wonderful Counselor can help us remove sin's power and guilt.

Mighty God, Everlasting Father

- The term “Mighty God” is a military title; He is the God who fights for His people.
- Jesus is called “everlasting father” because of His father-like qualities.
- There has never been a time when He was not, and there will never be a time when He will not be!
- If you are saved, your life is tied to His and you will live as long as He does!

Prince of Peace

- Prince of Peace literally means “the prince whose coming brings peace.”
- Peace with God makes it possible to be friends with God.
- Jesus is our Prince of Peace because He makes peace with God possible.
- We must experience peace with God before we can experience the peace of God.

Peace of God

- The peace of God brings calm in the storms of life.
- The peace of God is the sense of moment-by-moment joy we have as we trust our Heavenly Father in the midst of the problems of life.
- The most important peace is the inner peace we have when we come to know Jesus as our Lord and Savior.
- When we have peace with God then we can extend that peace to others.

Conclusion

- The gift of Christ is a personal gift from God to us.
- We serve a mighty God and an Everlasting Father when we serve Jesus.
- The most important thing we can do on Jesus' behalf is show others how to find Him.
