Stewardship Thought...

Deuteronomy 8:18—“But remember the Lord your God, for it is He who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms his covenant, which he swore to your forefathers, as it is today.”

To take this truth seriously, you find yourself working side by side with God—in the field, warehouse, bank, shop, office, home, or pulpit. A beautiful way to acknowledge God is to give faithfully to our church to support Christian ministries.

Lavish Love

Leviticus 25:35, “If one of your fellow Israelites falls into poverty . . . allow him to live with you.”

It was Billy’s eleventh birthday, and a group of family members gathered at a Mediterranean restaurant to celebrate. Before ordering, his father asked the birthday boy what he wanted. He reluctantly told his dad he’d like the salmon but knew it was too expensive. His father told him, “It’s your birthday. If that’s what you’d like, you can have it.” Billy was thrilled, and his broad smile showed it.

This father’s love for his son should remind us in small part of God’s lavish love. First John 3 describes the “great love” God showers on us: He calls all who believe in Him His children (v. 1), the benefactors of His lavish love. This love is exemplified in Christ’s sacrifice, the greatest gift of all. Jesus “laid down his life for us” on the cross (v. 16). “We’re saved ‘by grace through faith’ in Christ” (Ephesians 2:8). This is God’s gracious gift to everyone who believes.

In response to God’s lavish love, let’s “lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters” (1 John 3:16). We’re called to put our faith into action: to love and obey Him and to spread that love to others. Through the Holy Spirit, God enables us to extend lavish love to our family and beyond.

The Texans on Mission (TXM) Box team has been serving in Waco since the city experienced torrential rain and flooding from recent tropical storms. On 19 June morning, more volunteer teams deployed and will be serving in Waco for the next couple of weeks.

Teams deploying and joining the Box team include:

- Flood Recovery
- Shower/Laundry
- Volunteer Feeding
- Chainsaw
- Incident Management Team
- Electrical
- Electronics Asset Protection

Severe weather and flooding continue to impact families in Texas and Louisiana. Some areas received more than 30 inches of rain in two days, and many roads are closed due to flooding. Initial reports indicate many family homes are impacted and will need assistance. We continue to talk with our partners in Texas and Louisiana regarding their needs as the storm continues and they work on their assessments.

Frequently, after a disaster families feel alone and are overwhelmed by the damage. They do not know where to turn or how to start the cleanup process. But all that changes when a TXM volunteer shows up with an offer to help.

From time to time, there is a shift in demeanor, and they suddenly relax because TXM volunteers come in and meet physical needs, but they also offer encouragement, support and prayer, which meets emotional and spiritual needs as well.

Will you join me in praying for these volunteer teams as they minister to families in Waco and for all families in Texas and Louisiana affected by Tropical Storm Arthur?

Today's Scripture

Psalm 136:1— "Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! His faithful love endures forever."

God's Love Never Runs Out

Psalm 136:1

Spiritual Truth

- God never stops loving.
- God's love is not measured by our performance.
- God did not wait for us to improve before He loved us.

God's Love Is Steady

- There are seasons when prayers feel unanswered.
- At the cross, Jesus experienced abandonment, suffering, and silence.
- God's love did not stop at the edge of suffering; it went straight through it.

God's Love Sustains Us

- Human love often depends on strength, energy, and reciprocity, but God's love does not.

- When Peter denied Jesus three times, Jesus did not discard him, He restored him.
- God's love does not quit on us half-way through the race, His love endures forever.

Conclusion

- God's love literally carries us — moment by moment, breath by breath when we cannot carry ourselves.
- The same love that saved us is the love that will sustain us.
- God's love is not measured by our faithfulness to Him, but by His faithfulness to us.

Please Pray for VBS

Jesus, we pray that through VBS, kids in our community will grow in their relationship with You. We pray that You broke down the walls that might have prevented their young hearts from receiving Your love. We ask that the truth of who You are sank deep into their hearts. We pray that they know who You are and the overwhelming, joyful love You have for each and every one of them. May the impact of VBS last a lifetime.
