Deborah: A Mother in Israel

Judges 5:1-31, Hebrews 4:12,
1 Peter 2:9, Judges 4:1-24

Proclaim The Word Of God

- Do not tell people what YOU think; tell people what GOD says.
- Share God's Word whenever He gives you an opportunity.
- God will use it to change lives and whole cultures.
- To put a broken world back together, first proclaim His Word.

Provoke Trust In That Word

- We must incite people to believe in God's Word.
- Deborah could needle people into action.
- Through Deborah's prodding, Barak gained the faith to act on God's Word.
- God used Deborah to put her broken world back together.
- Prod people to trust and obey God's Word.

Praise The Lord

- Give God all the glory for any victory you experience.
- Deborah diminishes her role and magnifies God's part in the victory.
- Praise and magnify the Lord if you want God to use you to restore your world.
- There is nothing and nobody superior to God.
- Praise and magnify the Lord in all that you say and do.

Conclusion

- If you want God to use you to restore your broken world:
 - Proclaim His Word
 - Provoke trust in that Word
 - Praise the Lord
- God can use you to change your world for the better.
- Commit your life to God and let Him do it through you!
