

Israel - Hated Among the Nations

Zechariah 14:1-13, Ezekiel 38:3-6

The World's Date With Destiny

- After Israel's gathering in Ezekiel 38, the Bible says that a powerful coalition of nations will assault Israel in the latter days.
 - Rosh is the region of Russia.
 - Meshech settled in western Russia in a region that became known as Moskva and later changed to the modern name, Moscow.
 - Tubal settled in Siberia and the region was called Tobol which today is the city of Tobolsk.
 - Gomer is the region surrounding Germany.
 - Togarmah is modern day Turkey.
- The nations are drawn out so God can judge them at the height of their might and pride.
- God will defend Israel, destroy the kingdoms of the world and then will present Himself as their eternal King.

Israel is Defended

A map of Israel with various cities and geographical features labeled. The map is overlaid with a semi-transparent blue arc at the top. The labels include Nazareth, Megiddo, Samaria, Jerusalem, Heshbon, Beer-sheba, and the Salt Sea. The map also shows the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea.

- At the beginning of the battle Israel will be on the verge of annihilation.
- This is the final battle before the Millennial Kingdom.
- Before this battle is over, Israel finds God's protection in the valley that He will open through the middle of the Mount of Olives.
- It is interesting to note that the largest fault line in Israel goes right through the middle of the Mount of Olives.
- A vivid and horrible description of judgment will rain down on the enemies of Israel in the mountain valley.

Great Siberian Explosion in Tunguska

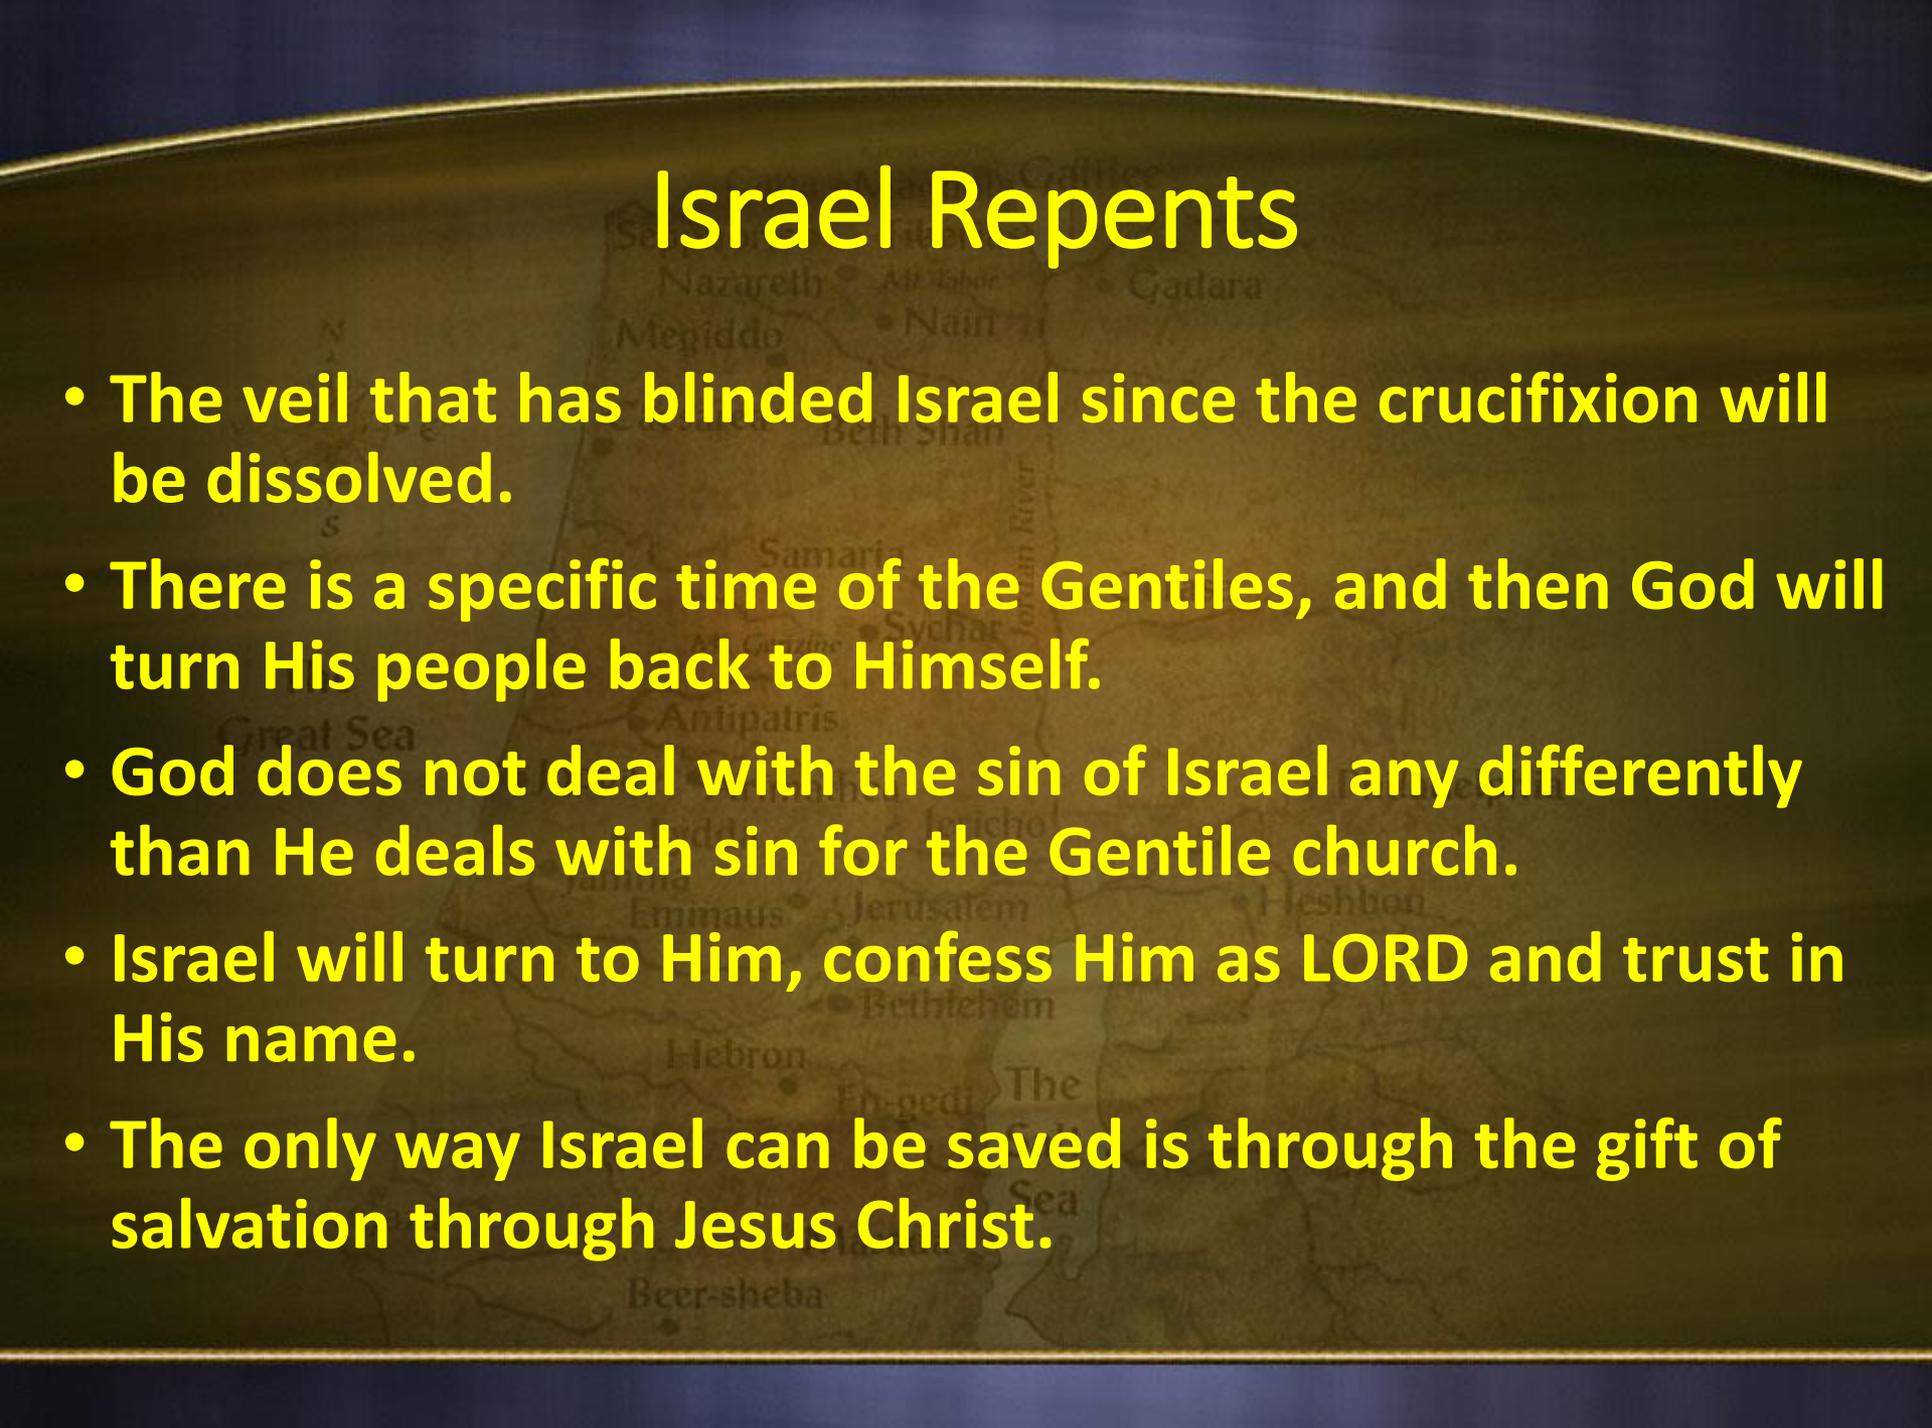

Great Siberian Explosion in Tunguska

Israel is Defended

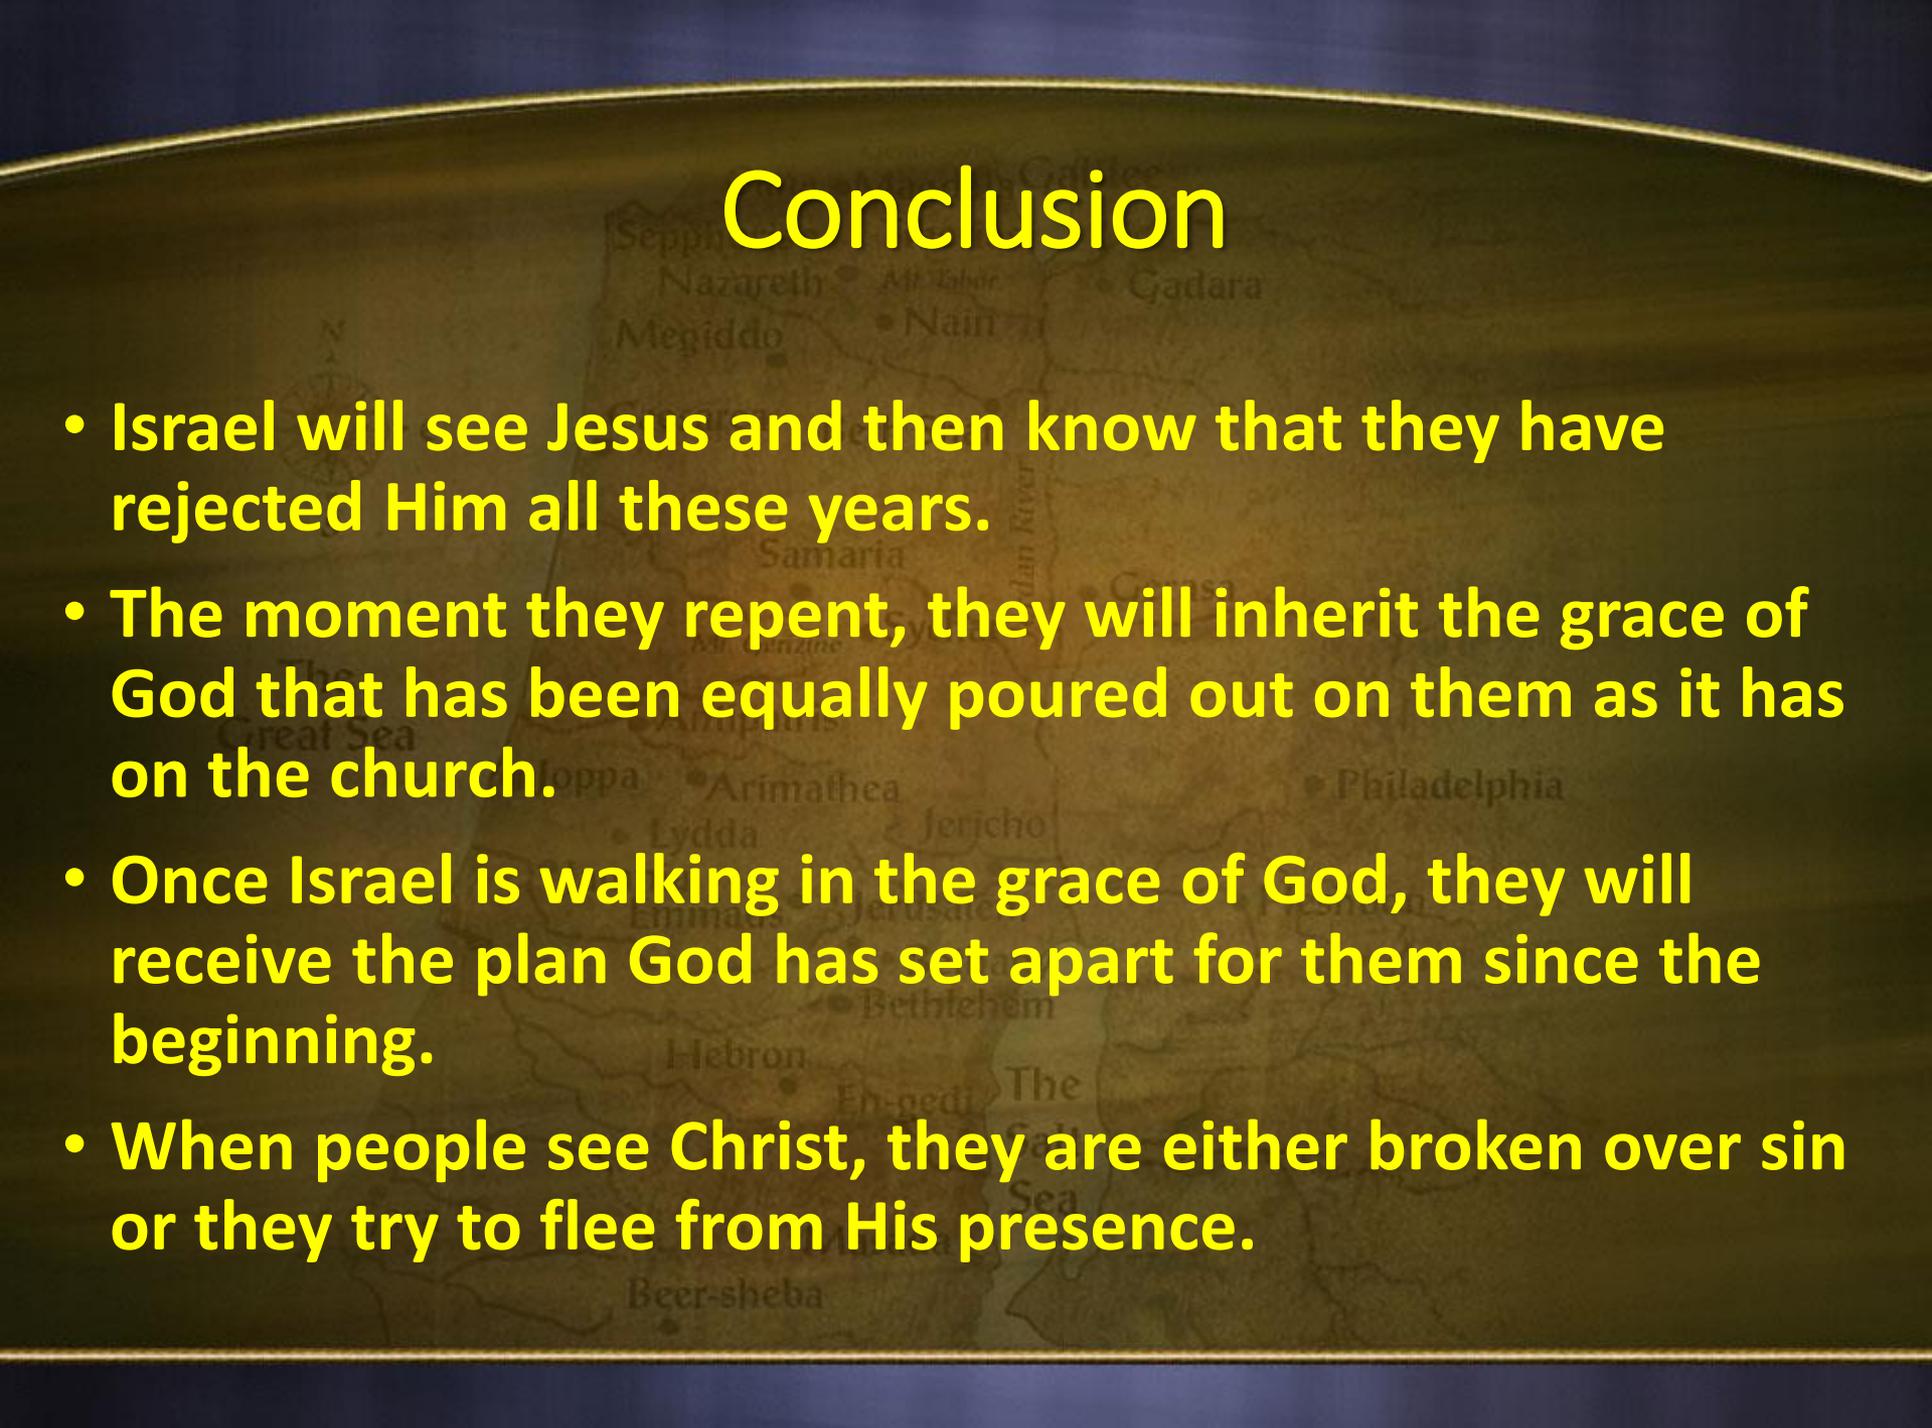

- At the beginning of the battle Israel will be on the verge of annihilation.
- This is the final battle before the Millennial Kingdom.
- Before this battle is over, Israel finds God's protection in the valley that He will open through the middle of the Mount of Olives.
- It is interesting to note that the largest fault line in Israel goes right through the middle of the Mount of Olives.
- A vivid and horrible description of judgment will rain down on the enemies of Israel in the mountain valley.
- In the first visitation, Jesus established His kingdom in the hearts of His people; the next time He descends it will be in power and every knee will bow including His enemies.

Israel Repents

- The veil that has blinded Israel since the crucifixion will be dissolved.
- There is a specific time of the Gentiles, and then God will turn His people back to Himself.
- God does not deal with the sin of Israel any differently than He deals with sin for the Gentile church.
- Israel will turn to Him, confess Him as LORD and trust in His name.
- The only way Israel can be saved is through the gift of salvation through Jesus Christ.

Conclusion

- Israel will see Jesus and then know that they have rejected Him all these years.
- The moment they repent, they will inherit the grace of God that has been equally poured out on them as it has on the church.
- Once Israel is walking in the grace of God, they will receive the plan God has set apart for them since the beginning.
- When people see Christ, they are either broken over sin or they try to flee from His presence.